(i) At its meeting held on 15th August 1941 the members of the panchayat board tendered their resignation of membership and the president requested the District Panchayat Officer to abolish the panchayat board.

(ii) The panchayat board has done nothing so far to improve the civic amenities of the village though it had to its credit an unspent balance of Rs. 409-15-7

(iii) There are no literate men in the village to run the panchayat board

MADRAS UNIVERSITY STUDENTS' INFORMATION BUREAU.

President: The Vice-Chancellor of the University of Madras (ex officio).

Vice-President: The Director of Public Instruction, Madras (ex officio).

Secretary: R. N. Selvam, Esq., M.A (Cantab.), Professor, Pachaiyappa's College, Madras.

The main functions of the Bureau are—

(1) To furnish information and advice to Indian students going to England or other countries abroad for general and technological studies.

(2) To circulate to colleges and other educational institutions in India information of a helpful character collected by the Central Bureau in London concerning the educational, financial and social facilities obtaining in educational centres outside India.

(3) To communicate with the Central Bureau on behalf of students before they start or on behalf of their parents when they are abroad.

(4) To advise prospective candidates for the Indian Civil Service and other competitive examinations held in Delhi.

Students of the Madras Presidency—and of the Indian States whose colleges are affiliated to the Madras University—who contemplate going to England or other countries for further study, and relatives and friends of those who have already gone, are invited to correspond with the Secretary, Room No. 6, New University Buildings, Chepauk, Madras, from whom all necessary information can be obtained.

As all private applications from students sent direct to the Educational Adviser in London or to Educational authorities in Great Britain are forwarded to the Secretary of the Madras University Students' Information Bureau for his enquiry and recommendation, much inconvenience and delay will be saved for students by their getting into touch with the Secretary at Madras.

The Bureau maintains a small library consisting of the prospectuses, syllabuses and calendars of educational institutions and Universities in Great Britain, America and other countries, and students and other enquirers will be allowed the use of the library on all week days—excepting holidays—between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Candidates seeking advice from the Secretary of the University Students' Information Bureau may interview him by previous appointment between 4 and 5 p.m. on working days in the New University Buildings, Chepauk and at other times at the Pachaiyappa's College, Madras.

R. N. SELVAM,
Secretary.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 7th November 1941:—

L.A. BILL No. 35 OF 1941.

A Bill to make provision for the restoration of the Buddha Gaya temple and its premises to Buddhists and for the better management of the same.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make provision for the restoration of the Buddha Gaya temple to the Buddhists and for the better management of the same; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Buddha Gaya Temple Act, 1941.

(2) It shall extend to the whole of British India.

(3) It shall come into force immediately.

Definitions.

2 In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

(a) "The temple" means the Great Temple built by the side of the Maha Bodhi tree near Buddha Gaya village in the Gaya district.

(b) "The temple land" means the land on which the Maha Bodhi temple and its precincts stand.

(c) "The Mahanth" means the presiding priest for the time being of the Saivite Monastery at Buddha Gaya.

(d) "Committee" means the managing committee constituted under the provisions of this Act.

(e) "Court" means the Court of the District Judge of Gaya.

Management and control.

3. The Government of India shall immediately, on the passing of this Act, establish a committee as hereinafter provided and entrust it with the management and control of the temple land, the temple and the worship in it.

Constitution of Committee.

4. (1) The Committee shall consist of the Mahanth and nine representatives of the Buddhists of India, Burma and Ceylon to be nominated by the Governor-General of India in consultation with the Governments of Burma and Ceylon.

(2) Any vacancy that occurs in the Committee shall be reported by the Committee to His Excellency the Governor-General within three months from the date of its occurrence.

Rights of Hindus.

5. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, or in the rules framed thereunder, Hindus of every sect shall have access to the temple to worship the image of Lord Buddha and to the temple land to offer Pinds under the Bodhi tree to the north of the temple, provided that nothing in this section shall enable any person to slaughter goat or any other animal on the temple land for any purpose religious or otherwise.

Exemption of property.

6 Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in the rules framed thereunder, the Committee shall have no jurisdiction over the zamindari or any other property attached to the Saivite Monastery at Buddha Gaya.

Statement of accounts.

7 Within three months after the first day of January in every year the Committee shall prepare and furnish to the Court a full and true statement of accounts of all moneys received or expended by them on behalf of the temple during the previous year:

Provided that the Court may, if it is satisfied that there is sufficient cause for so doing, extend the time allowed for the furnishing of any statement of accounts under this section.

Power to make rules.

8 (1) The Committee may, from time to time, make rules to carry into effect the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely —

(a) the upkeep and repair of the temple;

(b) the improvement of the temple land;

(c) the welfare and safety of the pilgrims;

(d) the safe custody of statements of accounts and other documents relating to the temple or the temple land; and

(e) the maintenance of cordial relations between the Buddhist and the Hindu pilgrims.

Saving.

9 Nothing in this Act shall affect any other enactment for the time being in force in British India providing for the preservation of ancient monuments.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Maha Bodhi temple at Buddha Gaya is the most sacred shrine of the Buddhist world as it stands on the spot where Lord Buddha attained Supreme Wisdom. It is to the Buddhist what Mecca is to the Muslim, Ajodhya to the Hindu and Jerusalem to the Christian. It is in the hands of a non-Buddhist. He neither Mahanth Sir Jugdhin Giri. For many years past the Buddhists have been greatly dissatisfied with the management of the temple and the temple land. They have expressed their strong desire to have them restored to their control. The desire is but natural and this Bill is intended to make provision for the better management of the Maha Bodhi Temple and the temple land and for their restoration to the Buddhists of India, Burma and Ceylon without prejudice to the rights of Hindus to worship the image of Buddha in the temple and to offer Pinda at the Bodhi tree to the north of the temple.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 7th November 1931:—

L. A. BILL No. 30 OF 1931.

A Bill to confer supplemental powers on the Federal Court.

WHEREAS it is expedient to remove certain doubts and to confer certain supplemental powers on the Federal Court, it is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Federal Court (Supplemental Powers) Act, 1931.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Governor-General in Council may by notification in the Gazette of India appoint.

Power to delegate duties.

2. The Federal Court shall have, and shall be deemed to always have had the power to delegate to the Registrar of the Court or any other officer of the Court, by name or generally by designation, any judicial quasi-judicial and non-judicial duties and such official in exercise of the delegated duties may be empowered to administer oath or solemn affirmation, as the case may be, prescribed by the Federal Court by its rules.

Amendment of Rule 10 of Order I of Act V of 1908.

3. The following clause shall be added to Rule 10 (2) of Order I of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 namely:—

"That on a certificate to that effect being given by the Advocate-General for a Province, that Province shall be deemed to be a necessary party to the suit."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Federal Court has provided by its rules for the delegation of certain powers of the Court to the Registrar. (vide O. 8, r. 1, F.C.R.) Doubts have been raised about the validity of this rule. Sec. 128 (2) (i), C.P.C., which gives such powers of delegation to the High Courts is not applicable to the Federal Court. It is doubtful whether sec. 214 of the Government of India Act, 1935, which provides "for regulating generally the practice and procedure of the Court", covers the delegation of the powers of the Court to one of its officials. It is expedient that the Federal Court rule be given validity beyond any doubt and with retrospective effect?

In the United Provinces vs. Atiqa Begum (A.I.R. 1941 F.C. 16) Gwyer C.J. has stated that under the law as it stands to-day "private persons can by a private settlement of the dispute, or even by collusion, prevent a Provincial Government from obtaining a decision of the Federal Court on points of the highest importance" and has recommended necessary legislation to be undertaken by the Central Legislature. This Bill seeks to amend O. 1, r. 10, C.P.C., in order to make it clear that in a private suit in which an issue affecting a Provincial Government is raised, e.g., when the validity of a provincial legislation is questioned such a Government should have the status of a party to the suit and consequently the indisputed right of appeal to the Federal Court under section 205 (2) of the Government of India Act, 1935.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 7th November 1911 :—

B. A. Bill No. 37 of 1911.

A Bill further to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 1911.

Amendment of section 162, Act V of 1898.

2. In section 162 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (hereinafter referred to as the said Code) to sub-section (1) the following further proviso shall be added, namely:—

"Provided that when a police officer chooses to record the statements of a number of witnesses he should record the statement of each witness separately."

Amendment of section 488, Act V of 1898.

3. In sub-section (1) of section 488 of the said Code after the words "to maintain his wife" the following words shall be inserted, namely:—

"or a woman who has been in his keeping for a period of six years or more,"

Amendment of section 496, Act V of 1898.

4. To section 496 of the said Code, the following further proviso shall be added, namely:—

"Provided further that when a person has been convicted and sentenced to imprisonment and desires to file an appeal from the order of his conviction and is prepared to give bail or in case of the dismissal of his appeal from a conviction and sentence of imprisonment wants to file a revision from the appellate order and is prepared to give bail, he may be released on bail by the court passing the order of conviction or dismissing the appeal, respectively:

Provided that such an order may be confirmed or cancelled by the appellate or revisional court."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Code of 1898 was the first to give the accused in a criminal prosecution an insight into the statements made by the prosecution witnesses before the police and the way in which it has been supplemented by the amendment of 1923, has proved very helpful in the administration of justice. The provision of this section can, however, be made inoperative, if instead of writing the statements of witnesses separately, they are written jointly. It has been held by the Oudh Chief Court—and held rightly in Emperor versus Sahib (1927 A.L.R. Oudh, p. 201) that joint statements could not be legally used as statements of any particular prosecution witness for the simple reason that it is not known how much of any particular joint statement was the individual statement of any particular prosecution witness and how much was not his individual statement.

The Lahore High Court similarly in a previous case, Bavanta Singh versus Emperor (1930 A.L.R. Lahore, p. 451), held that the trial court was right in refusing to give a copy of the statement of a witness to the accused, when on referring to the police diaries, it found that the statement of this witness was recorded jointly with another prosecution witness who was tendered for cross-examination but was not cross-examined. Ever since the discovery of this loop-hole it is being sometimes utilised by some police officers to render the provisions of section 162 nugatory. Any such practice is highly undesirable and is against the interest of justice. The addition of the proposed proviso would remove this defect.

The second amendment is intended to avoid a very undesirable social evil which appears to be on the increase and is the cause of bringing great misery to the fair sex. It is unfortunate that some persons are so unscrupulous as to enter into illegal connexion with certain young women but after a time leave them uncared for and without any assistance. People who indulge in such practices must not be allowed to go without being made responsible for the liabilities they thereby incur and must be made liable for their acts. The words "illegitimate children" already exist in the section. Now it is a question of their mothers who are to be provided for. It is with this view that the amendment is proposed.

The fourth clause relates to the granting of the bail to persons convicted of bailable offences. After a magistrate passes an order convicting a person charged with an offence, then under the law as it stands to-day, he has no jurisdiction to grant him bail. Similar is the condition of the court of appeal after the judgment passed by it. In cases of this type the convicted persons ordinarily get bail from the appellate or revisional courts specially from the former, but have to undergo considerable amount of trouble and expense before the order granting bail is obtained. In many a case they have actually to pass some days in prison before they can get the desired order. In case of bailable offences a provision of the type suggested by the proposed amendment would go very much to soften the rigour of the present practice, and be helpful in advancing the interest of justice.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 7th November 1911 :—

L. A. BILL No. 3 OF 1911.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Penal Code for a certain purpose.

XLV of 1860. Whereas it is expedient further to amend the Indian Penal Code for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows.—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Indian Penal Code (Amendment) Act, 1912.

Amendment of section 497, Act XLV of 1860. XLV of 1860. 2. In section 497 of the Indian Penal Code (hereinafter referred to as the said Code) for the words

"In such case the wife shall not be punishable as an abettor" the words

"In such case the wife shall be punishable as an abettor" shall be substituted.

Amendment of section 498, Act XLV of 1860. 3. To section 498 of the said Code the following proviso shall be added, namely.—

"Provided that in cases where the woman is an instigating party, she, will be punishable as an abettor."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Adultery has always been considered to be a very heinous crime in the East.

Muslim Law took a very serious view of the offence and the punishment prescribed was death. But the advent of Western ideas and culture has gone a long way to soften that rigour. As early as 1845, an Act was passed to modify and prohibit the punishment prescribed by the Muslim Law or Customary Law of the land. Section 1 of Act No. II of 1845 laid down:

"It is hereby enacted that whenever any person shall be convicted of the offence of adultery by any of the courts of East India Company, within the territories subject to the Presidency of Bombay, such person shall be sentenced to fine or imprisonment or both, at the discretion of the court, and shall not be sentenced to any other punishment whatever, any Law or Regulation to the contrary notwithstanding."

Section 2 of the last section of this Act stated:

"And it is hereby enacted, that no person shall be admitted to prosecute any woman for adultery other than the husband of such woman, and that no person shall be admitted to prosecute any woman for adultery other than the husband of the woman with whom such man is alleged to have committed adultery."

By this enactment the offence of adultery was reduced from a public and penal offence to an offence against the husband of the woman. The husband of the woman with whom adultery was committed was given the option of proceeding against either of the parties or to let them both go unpunished. The Act XLV of 1860 went a step further and absolved the woman of any blame whatsoever. This position can be justified only on the presumption that women are so weak and incapable of protecting themselves that they cannot even protest against a wrong done to them. The condition of the females in this country has now much improved and we cannot admit that position except in rare cases. It is therefore proposed that though the woman may not be equally guilty with the man, but at least she may be punishable as an abettor and it is provided by the proposed amendment to section 497, I.P.C.

Similar is the case with section 498, I.P.C. In this case there is no prohibition for punishing the woman as an abettor, but the main words of the section are such that it becomes very doubtful if she can be so punishable. The words used in the Section are "Whoever takes or entices away any woman", meaning thereby that the woman is absolutely passive and is no active party to the transaction. The question of being an abettor would not thus arise. In the view of the section, it would also follow that if the woman is an instigating party then the elements of the offence under the section would not be deemed to exist and there would be no 'taking away' or 'enticing away' and even the man would not be guilty of the offence. But this interpretation has not been accepted by the Judicial Courts. As early as 1890 it was held by the Madras High Court that 'it is none the less taking although the advances and solicitations proceeded from the woman and the accused had for some time refused to yield to her request'. Kunchammi 2. M.H.C. p. 231.

In 1902 another case came up before a Division Bench of the Madras High Court, in which the man had been convicted to six months R.I. and the woman to one month R.I. The learned Judges acquitted the woman. In their judgment they said:

> "Whether a woman could be convicted of abetting 'the taking away' of herself within the meaning of section 498, I.P.C., we need not now decide, as that is not the offence charged against her, but we are of opinion that when a man is convicted, as in this case of 'enticing away' a woman under section 498, the woman cannot be guilty as an abettor." I.L.R. 26. Mad. p. 463.

According to the finding of the learned Judges the woman could not be convicted as an abettor if the man was convicted of the offence. The question is whether she could be convicted of the offence if the man was acquitted. I dare say not. So there can be no case in which she can be convicted. She may have instigated the act, might have been morally responsible, still she is to go without any punishment.

This is very unjust and inequitable and has led to a great misuse in practice. So the proposed amendment is sought to be introduced, and it is expected that by its passage, the offences of the type would be greatly reduced.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to regulate the extent to which railway property shall be liable to taxation imposed by an authority within a Province was presented to the Legislative Assembly on the 7th November 1941 :—

We, the undersigned, members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to regulate the extent to which railway property shall be liable to taxation imposed by an authority within a Province was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers noted in the margin, and have the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill as amended by us annexed thereto. Paper No. 1.

We have omitted the words " and to such extent as " in sub-clause (1) and the whole of sub-clause (2) of clause 4 of the Bill. The omissions represent substitution to the wording of section 134 of the Indian Railways Act 1890, which are in our opinion more than merely stylistic and definitely increase the powers given by that section. The Bill as now revised by us restores exactly the position which existed prior to the 1st April 1937.

2. The Bill was published in the Gazette of India, dated the 5th April 1941.

3. We think that the Bill has not been so altered as to require republication, and we recommend that it be passed as now amended.

Amendment of section 84, Act V of 1940.

9. In sub-section (2) of section 84 of the said Act,—

(a) in clause (c), for the word " Record " the word " Records " and for the word " List " the word " Lists " shall be substituted;

(b) in clause (q), the words and figures " as under section 63 " shall be omitted;

(c) after clause (q) the following clause shall be added, namely:—

" (r) make such provisions as are necessary to ensure uniformity of practice between the Registrar and the Bombay Registrar in all matters arising out of the registration of trade marks in respect of textile goods."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It has been realised that the Trade Marks Act, 1940, does not endow the Deputy Registrar of Trade Marks, Bombay, with all the powers necessary to carry through to its final stages the registration of a textile trade mark. It is considered desirable to give him full powers to do everything necessary right up to and including the stage of complete registration of textile marks. The proposals in the Bill, which are explained in the notes on clauses, are designed to achieve this object by setting up an independent registry of textile trade marks at Bombay under an officer exercising all the powers of the Registrar in respect of textile trade marks within his own jurisdiction. The jurisdiction is defined by reference to the Province in which the applicant for registration has his principal place of business and includes all except the eastern portions of British India which remains within the jurisdiction of the Registrar at Calcutta. The opportunity has been taken to correct two minor errors in the Act.

New Delhi,
The 4th November 1941.

A. RAMASWAMI MUDALIYAR.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 2.—(a) The change introduces the expression used elsewhere, e.g., section 63, in the Act.

(b) The amendment is consequential on the provision now made by the new section 63 that the Bombay Registry shall maintain a separate independent register of textile marks instead of a copy of the register maintained at Calcutta.

Clause 3.—The new section 63 provides for a separate Registry at Bombay, and a separate Bombay register and vests in the Bombay Registrar the powers necessary to enable him to dispose of all applications for registration made to him.

Section 63A defines the jurisdiction of the Bombay Registrar and provides that in spite of any subsequent changes in the location of the place of business of an applicant for registration the Registrar by whom the trade mark was originally registered remains in full control.

Clause 4.—Existing section 63 of the Trade Marks Act is unnecessary having been replaced by the new section 63. Section 63 as now inserted provides for the keeping of complete records concerning textile trade marks at both the Calcutta and the Bombay Registries.

Clauses 5, 6 and 8.—These are consequential on the amendment made by clause 3.

Clause 7.—This corrects an error in the Act.

Clause 9.—The first two amendments are consequential; the last supplies a means of co-ordinating the duties of the two separate authorities that will now deal with textile trade marks.

2. In section 104 of the Indian Companies Act, 1913 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act),— VII of 1913. Amendment of section 104, Act VII of 1913.

(a) after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely :—

"(2-A) If the registrar is satisfied that in the circumstances of any particular case the period of one month specified in sub-sections (1) and (2) for compliance with the requirements of this section is inadequate, he may extend that period as he thinks fit, and, if he does so, the provisions of sub-section (1) and (2) shall have effect in that particular case as if for the said period of one month the extended period allowed by the registrar were substituted.";

(b) in the proviso to sub-section (3), for the words "within one month after the allotment" the words, brackets and figure "within the time allowed in sub-sections (1) and (2)" shall be substituted.

3. In sub-section (d) of section 292B of the said Act, for the words "shall be invested, and shall be invested only" the words "shall be either deposited in a Post Office Savings Bank account or invested" shall be substituted, and for the words "which are not so invested shall be" the words "which are not so deposited or invested shall be so deposited or" shall be substituted. Amendment of section 292B, Act VII of 1913.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Representations have been received by the Government of India that owing to delays in the arrival of mails from the United Kingdom, cases have occurred in which particulars relating to the allocation in the United Kingdom of shares of companies with share capital have not been received in India within one month from the date of allotment to enable them to be filed with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies by the time required under sub-section (1) of section 104 of the Indian Companies Act. Such cases are likely to occur frequently until the end of the war. It is considered unreasonable that companies in the present circumstances should always apply to the High Courts for relief as provided in sub-section (3) of section 104 of that Act. The position can be rectified by conferring powers on the Registrar to extend in exceptional cases the period within which the required return of share allotment can be filed

2. There is a strong demand that Provident Fund moneys of employees of companies should be allowed to be deposited in the Post Office Savings Bank. Such deposits are not permissible under sub-section (d) of section 292B which permits investment of such Provident Fund moneys only in securities mentioned or referred to in clauses (a) to (c) of section 20 of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882. Deposits in the Post Office Savings Bank do not constitute securities for this purpose. The position can be rectified by amending sub-section (2) of section 3-B of the Indian Companies Act to enable deposits of the nature mentioned above being made in the Post Office Savings Bank.

3. The present Bill is designed to achieve the objects mentioned in paragraphs 1 and 2.

(c) in Part C, for the words beginning with "A broad arrow above two figures" and ending with "not more than four figures" the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"A broad arrow followed by not more than six figures, or a broad arrow followed by a single letter and not more than five figures".

Amendment of Eighth Schedule, Act IV of 1939.

24. In the Eighth Schedule to the said Act, in entry No. 2, clauses (c) and (b) shall be re-lettered as clauses (b) and (c), respectively, and the following shall be inserted as clause (a), namely:—

"(a) of all the wheels are fitted with pneumatic tyres and the vehicle is a delivery van and is not drawing a trailer..... ....

rural districts and on urgent and genuine need for a temporary permit may arise at some place far from the headquarters of the Regional Transport Authority. It is desirable that there should be power to make delegations to responsible local authorities.

Clause 15.—While it is desirable to retain with Provincial Governments the power to require persons to fix horns or silencers it is desirable also that Provincial Governments should have power to authorise Transport Authorities to do so.

Clause 16 (c).—The existing provision has been found defective since the "testing" clause is not confined to stage carriages, and may extend to services of motor cabs. The existing provision does not provide for cases where no ticket is required to be sold.

Clause 18.—The effect of section 78 is that any traffic sign erected for a purpose already provided for in the Ninth Schedule must conform to that Schedule but that the Provincial Government has power to erect signs for purposes not covered by that Schedule. But section 78 makes it obligatory upon the driver to conform only with signs specified in Part A of the Ninth Schedule. This clause seeks to impart the same force to all mandatory signs, whether they are provided in the Ninth Schedule or not.

Clause 20.—Although the plying of vehicles without registration or of transport vehicles without a permit is punishable, there is no provision for stopping them from plying and thus continuing their offence. The clause provides for the grant of power for authorised officers to detain vehicles so as to prevent their being used without being registered or without a permit or in violation of certain conditions of the permit.

Clause 21.—The powers under Chapters VI and VII with which police officers have been invested cannot be exercised by officers of other departments of the Provincial Government. It is desirable that when special departments are set up for the purpose of administering the Act the officers of those departments should have the powers entrusted to police officers by the Act.

Clause 23.—Sub-clause (c) has the same purpose as clauses 5 and 11. It is not possible for the Master-General of the Ordnance personally to discharge these functions, and sub-clause (c) will permit him to do so under his supervision and control. With the expansion in the number of motor vehicles used by the defence services, the system of registration marks contained in the Act has become inadequate, and sub-clause (e) makes provision for a revised system.

Clause 24.—By definition a "delivery van" is a goods vehicle but is not a "light transport vehicle". Consequently it falls under item 7 (3) in the British Schedule and is subjected to a speed limit of 15 miles per hour. A "delivery van" is a vehicle not exceeding 5,000 lbs. in laden weight and it is not necessary that it should be subjected to any speed-limit other than those locally in force in the area in which it is used.
